

Weekly News

It was fantastic to welcome so many of you into school to our parents' evening. Thank you for all of your lovely comments. We are hoping to see lots of you in school again next week to celebrate World Book Day.

This week we have focused on Choices and Consequences in our Collective Worship. We have looked at the story of Jonah and the Whale and thought about how Jonah's actions led to consequences not only for himself but also others.

Staffing News

I am delighted to inform you that Mrs Howden has been promoted to the position of Caretaker. Mr Hodson, as site manager, and Mrs Howden are responsible for site security and safety day-to-day and during school holiday periods.

School Uniform

We have reviewed our uniform policy and the new policy is now available on the website under the parents tab. As we start to look forward to the Summer months, we would like to highlight that cycling/sports shorts are only suitable for PE lessons and are not part of our normal school uniform.

Just a reminder that our uniform is as follows:

- Grey or black fitted trousers, skirt or pinafore dress
- White or pale blue polo shirt
- Royal blue cardigan or jumper with or without the school logo
- Royal blue checked dress in the Summer
- Grey or black fitted school shorts (not sports shorts or cycling shorts)
- Flat, plain, sensible black shoes

We have lots of school sweatshirts and cardigans piling up in lost property. If you are missing any uniform, please have a look so these lost items can be returned to their owners.

World Book Day

Thursday 7th March is World Book Day. This is a national day with the aim to promote a love of books and reading. Reading for pleasure is the single biggest indicator of a child's future success – more than their family circumstances, their parents' educational background or their income. The aim of World Book Day is to see more children, particularly those from disadvantaged backgrounds, develop a life-long habit of reading for pleasure and the improved life chances this brings them. We are inviting children to come into school on World Book Day dressed as their favourite book character. Children who wish to come in their own clothes may do so if they don't wish to dress up. Please don't go out and buy any special costumes!

We are also inviting parents to come into school on World Book Day at 3pm to share a book with your child/children.
